GEORGE C. HIXON DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS IN EAST

Well-known Businessman Expires in Philadelphia Hospital Sunday Morning

MANY BUSINESS INTERESTS IN THE WEST AND SOUTH

Native of La Crosse and Funeral Will be Held Here

George C. Hixon of Chicago, a native of La Crosse and brother of Frank P. Hixon, died at a hospital in Philadelphia Sunday morning at 5:40 after a lingering illness with cancer.

George Cooley Hixon was born in the old Hixon residence, 429 North Seventh street, on March 6, 1871. He was the fourth son of Gideon Cooley Hixon, pioneer lumberman and business man of this section of the state. He received his early education in La Crosse, and prepared for college at Andover and Exeter academies, in Massachusetts. Finishing at Exeter in 1890 he matriculated at Yale, and graduated with the class of 1894. At the university he was a member of the Wolf's Head senior society.

Starts in Business

Returning to La Crosse after his graduation Mr. Hixon entered the business world in the office of the Listman mills. After two years, however, he formed a partnership with John Alexander under the name of the Alexander Lumber company, and left La Crosse. He has not since been a resident of this city, although he maintained throughout his life a deep interest in his native community and was a frequent visitor with his relatives here.

Mr. Hixon's partnership with Mr. Alexander took him to Aurora, Ill., but after a few years the headquarters of the firm was transferred to Chicago and Mr. Hixon established his residence there, maintaining his home at 999 Lakeshore Drive since that time. In November of the year that he became a resident of Chicago he married Miss Ramona Kelcher of California.

Mr. Hixon's memory in La Crosse will be kept fresh by the fact that he was one of the small group of men who gave Riverside park to the city. Although not a resident of La Crosse at the time that the park project was conceived, he was one of the heavy contributors to the fund by means of which the land upon which the park stands was dredged up from the river, converting the city's dreary and unprepossessing water front into a beautiful setting second to none along the Mississippi. This was but one of many public benefactions which Mr. Hixon is known to have made, although even his closest friends had none but a vague idea of the extent and nature of his generosity.

Many Business Interests

Mr. Hixon had large business interests, centering for the most part in this section of the country and through the south and west. In addition to the Alexander Lumber company, which grew to large proportions, Mr. Hixon was a member of the Hixon Securities company and the Pennington Hixon company of Madison, besides numerous smaller interests.

Mr. Hixon was a member of the University club of Chicago, the Glenview Golf club of that city, the Yale club of New York city, and of the La Crosse Country club and the La Crosse club here.

Mr. Hixon is survived by his widow.

His brothers, F. P. Hixon of La Crosse, J. M. Hixon of Pasadena, Calif., and Robert Hixon of Toledo, were with him at the time of his death. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hixon left Pasadena for Philadelphia three weeks ago, when word was received that their brother could not recover, and were at his bedside much of the time up to the end.

Funeral Here

Mr. Hixon's body will be brought back to La Crosse for burial in the Hixon mausoleum in Oak Grove cemetery. Funeral services will be held here Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 at the old Hixon residence, 429 North Seventh street. Rev. Robert D. Vinter will officiate at the services. Friends are requested to omit flowers.

MAYORALTY BATTLE TO CLOSE TONIGHT WITH TWO SPEECHES

Verchota and Taggart at Union Hall, Bentley at Concordia Winds up Campaign

POLLS OPEN TUESDAY AT 6, CLOSE AT 8; SEE HEAVY VOTE

Contest for Ward Offices also Adds Spice to Spring Election

MONDAY, the day before the mayoralty election, finds both candidates for mayor, J. J. Verchota and A. A. Bentley, still making a strong race and prepared for the wind-up of the speaking campaign tonight.

Mr. Verchota and Harry Taggart will make their closing speeches tonight at Union hall, Rose and St. Cloud streets. The meeting will begin at 8 o'clock. It is the only speech that Mr. Verchota will make on the north side. Mayor Bentley will speak this evening at Concordia hall, in the 1100 block on La Crosse street, also beginning at 8 o'clock.

The polls will open in the city on Tuesday at 6 a. m. and will close at 8 p. m. One of the heaviest votes in recent years is expected tomorrow. The interest of women in election issues is growing with each campaign and the voting in many wards will be in many cases doubled.

There also has been lively campaigning for ward offices in a number of wards, notably the 15th, 19th 20th and 21st, where candidates for aldermen have been working as hard as the mayoralty candidates. There are also several contests for supervisor in some of the wards, in others the incumbents have no opposition.

The city clerk has requested election officials to return the voted ballots in the sealed bag Tuesday night after the election. The clerk's office will be open until 12 o'clock or after.

The clerk has also called attention of election inspectors to section 618, of the election laws which provides that inspectors shall revise the registration list adding names of persons that are known to be entitled to a vote in the respective precincts. Names of persons known to have died or become disqualified since the last election are ordered stricken off the list.

KAISER AND BRIDE HAVE SEPARATED IS CLAIM OF WRITER

Says Domestic Troubles of Pair Have Reached Climax of Definite Separation

YORK, England.—By The Associated Press.—Reports of a serious disagreement between former Emperor William and Princess Hermine, his bride of a few months, which have cropped out from time to time since the first of the year are revived Monday by the Doorn correspondent of the Yorkshire Evening News. The correspondent states he has learned "from a singularly well-informed source" that the ex-kaiser and his wife have definitely separated as a result of domestic troubles.

When Princess Hermine left Doorn recently she went ostensibly to inspect family estates in Germany, but in reality, asserts the correspondent, she has gone to live with her near relatives.

"The actual separation is over a fortnight old," he declared, "but the secret has been well kept."

The ex-emperor's life is reported to be "very solitary" and his establishment very simple, for, although his private means are still ample, they are not under his control.

In the article the ex-kaiser is described as one of the most tragic figures in Europe today.

KRUPP DIRECTORS HELD FOR INCITING CLASH AT ESSEN

Four Officials Arrested Easter Sunday Following Shooting Affair of Saturday

RADICAL PAPER CLAIMS TROUBLE WAS STARTED BY COMMUNISTS

Protest Sent to French Officers by Directors of Krupp Plant

ESSEN.—By The Associated Press.—Herr Schaffer, director general of the Krupp plant, asserts that the four directors arrested Sunday on charges of inciting last Saturday's shooting, were in no way responsible for the trouble.

The French allege that the blowing of the sirens at the works, which excited the men, could have been stopped by the officials, even if they had not ordered the signal. Herr Schaffer said that it is customary for the men to blow sirens "as a fire signal or when there is sign of danger of any kind."

Herr Hartwig, Oesterlin, Ritter and Bruhn, the directors held, were arrested at their homes early Easter morning. The Krupp plant is to be closed at least until Wednesday, so that the excitement occasioned by the events of the week-end may completely die down.

Provoked by Nationalists?

ESSEN.—By The Associated Press.—The communist socialist newspaper, Rote Fahne, referring to the disturbance at the Krupp plant last Saturday, which resulted in the death of nine Germans and the wounding of 34 others, says that for several weeks past, the walls and workshops of the plant had been covered with German nationalist placards. The dispatch continues:

"Immediately on learning of the arrival of French troops at the works, a number of nationalists incited the workmen to resist and urged them not to allow any soldier to leave the plant alive. When members of the workers' council, who had been deliberating, left the conference hall they found themselves in the presence of a compact crowd led by enraged nationals, including students, who were shouting 'Down with France.'"

The Berlin newspaper correspondent learned that the directors of the Krupp works have sent a note to the French divisional commander there protesting against the shootings.

The communication charges that the French detachment which visited the works in search for automobiles "fired on the defenseless crowd" after members of the factory council had offered to insure the soldiers safe conduct off the property in view of the uncertain temper of the workmen.

Put Blame on French

The German correspondents telegraphed that the French were responsible for the tragedy, asserting that the military, apparently disconcerted at the number of men called into the yard by the blowing of the siren, began firing.

President Ebert, in a message to Krupp officials, speaks of the "monstrous blood-bath which French militarism has introduced among peaceful and defenseless workers" and continued:

"The French troops fired machine guns upon workmen who only protested peacefully, without threats, against forcible entry of German workshops."

HOUSE OF DAVID TO FACE STATE PROBE; OUSTER THREATENED

DETROIT, Mich.—State investigation of the Israelite House of David at Benton Harbor is soon to be ordered as a result of charges of immorality made in the federal district court at Grand Rapids, Governor Alex J. Groesbeck announced here Sunday night. If the charges are upheld, it was indicated, a move may be made, through amendment of the state laws, to disband the colony.

The state's action is expected to take the form of quo warranto proceedings in which leaders of the sect would be served notice to appear in circuit court to show cause why it should not be disbanded.

The state, it was pointed out, might bring the charge that through alleged immoral practices the organization had failed to uphold the federal and state constitutions. The cult is organized under the state religious law, which demands that the constitution be upheld.

PRESIDENT HARDING NOT WORRYING OVER POLITICS SAYS DAVIS

Labor Secretary Discusses Attitude of Executive at Women's Club Meeting

DECLARES THE PRESIDENT IS A POOR ADVERTISER

Says Harding "Works at His Job" and Lets Results Talk

BOSTON, Mass.—President Harding is "not bothering his head over much about the politics of 1924," Secretary Davis told the Women's Republican club of Boston, in a speech here Monday.

The president's secretary of labor, after expressing his views of woman's place in politics, discussed Mr. Harding's attitude toward the forthcoming presidential campaign.

"The president's plans seem to worry many of our people," Secretary Davis said. "I think that every newspaperman I have talked to for the past month or more has wanted to know what they are. Well, I'll tell you some things about the president.

Harding Poor Advertiser

"President Harding is probably the poorest advertiser in the United States today. The smallest corner grocer in Boston could undoubtedly give him a big handicap and then beat him at the game of getting himself 'sold,' as they call it, to the public. It is not the time of our old and respected friend Theodore Roosevelt, who had the faculty of letting folks know what he was doing and how fast he was doing it. President Harding reminds me of the man who was made boss of the mill, back in the days when I worked with my hands. This mill-worker was a man that nobody had ever noticed. He never had been engaged in any of the ordinary disputes about the plant. But the quiet man got the job. And we found out why. He worked at his job. He did not talk about it. Well, that is President Harding. He works at his job. He does not talk about it.

A Hard Worker

"President Harding is an indefatigable worker and he accomplishes tremendous results. He is a plain business-like individual with a genius for tabilizing things. He is not the man to do his work to the tune of a brass band. I have often urged him to let the people know the seriousness of the tasks confronting him and the steps he has taken and is taking to perform them, for I know something of the value of publicity. But he has insisted that the work will speak for itself and the people will find things out. When I have sought to point out that there is a campaign of 1924, coming, and that a little advertising for the administration would do no harm, he has told me that he is not a showman, not a stage director. He holds that today the best politics is service to the people.

"Just between you and me President Harding is not bothering his head over the politics of 1924. He is spending his time working for the people of the United States today, tomorrow and 100 years from now."

PLAN FOR FARMER CREDIT OFFERED IN IOWA LEGISLATURE

DES MOINES, Iowa.—By The Associated Press.—A plan to provide Iowa farmers with a large new source of short time credit that will enable them to hold their crop for a favorable market was unanimously approved by the Iowa house Monday.

The plan is embodied in a bill by Representative Edson of Buena Vista county which provides for the sealing of grain in farmers' warehouses for stated periods.

VOTE

The usual indictment against the American community is that the voters are too uninterested to go to the polls.

Tomorrow is election day in La Crosse. The personnel of the city government for the next two years will be chosen. If you do not vote tomorrow you will be governed in the next two years by an administration in which you have had no voice.

ST. LOUIS GUNMEN IN DARING HOLD-UP LOOT MAIL TRUCK

Nine Sacks of Registered Mail Carried off by Gang Early Monday

ANOTHER MAIL ROBBERY REPORTED SUNDAY IN SPRINGFIELD, ILLINOIS

Gang Flees With Mail Pouches, Leaving Registered Mail

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—By the Associated Press.—Nine pouches of registered mail were obtained in a holdup of a mail truck in the business district here Monday. Police asserted it was the boldest robbery in the city's history. The mail was for delivery to large business firms, banks, and brokerage houses.

Chief Postoffice Inspector Reuter stated a buried check up showed there were 327 registered letters in the pouches and indications were that their values would not exceed $2,000.

Lock Driver in Cage

At Fourth and Pine streets, near the sub-station, it was announced a dark colored touring car drove alongside the truck and five men jumped out. They covered the chauffeur of the truck and a messenger, both of whom were armed with shotguns, and compelled the messenger to get into the touring car. The chauffeur of the mail truck then was ordered to drive to an alley about four blocks away. The messenger was relieved of his keys and the cage door of the truck was opened by the robbers. The robbers threw the mail into the touring car, and, after placing the messenger and the chauffeur into the cage of the truck, drove off.

A negro, passing by several minutes later, released the messenger and chauffeur.

Springfield Has Robbery

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—By the Associated Press.—Federal and local authorities were at a loss to explain the daring mail robbery early Sunday morning, in which six heavily armed gunmen fled with six sacks of regular mail, and entirely neglected sacks of registered mail on the next truck. No clue to the identity of the gang has been gained.

The police announced that questioning of one member, who gave his name as "Bryan J. Shelton," has produced nothing of value. Postoffice Inspector Baumgartner of Jacksonville, has examined the recorded mail, and estimates this morning that the robbers obtained less than $1,000 for their trouble.

With receipt of word from the St. Louis police denying an earlier identification of Shelton, the theory that the gang was a part of "Egan's Rats," notorious St. Louis gangsters, was exploded. The St. Louis police announced they were unable to place a man of Shelton's description.

All the sacks of mail, which were recovered in an alley-way here, had been cut open and emptied of money.

FOUR SOUGHT IN CONNECTION WITH CHICAGO DEATH

CHICAGO, Ill.—Four men were being sought by the authorities Monday in connection with the slaying Sunday night of Theodore Krisch, a republican precinct captain and supporter of State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe, who was found shot to death in his cigar store and card room.

The only clew out of the maze of theories of gang politics, gambling war and robbery possibilities as bases for police theories was that four strange young men had been seen in the neighborhood about the time of the shooting.

State's Attorney Crowe, a former superior court judge whose personal bailiff Krisch then was, expressed his disbelief that politics or trouble among gamblers had anything to do with the killing.

COLDER WEATHER DUE BY WEDNESDAY SAYS WEATHER MAN

WASHINGTON.—Cold weather again is overspreading the northwest, and the Ohio valley and Lower Lake region will experience another drop in temperature by Wednesday. After an Easter which in many sections was the coldest ever recorded generally milder weather prevailed in the eastern states Monday.

A wide disturbance, however, is central over Colorado and pressure is higher over the eastern and southeastern states, the Canadian Northwest North Dakota.

MADISON WOMAN BEATEN BY THUGS ROBBED OF $700

MADISON, Wis.—Two flashily dressed young men forced their way into the home of Mrs. Jane Barclay, 75, here Sunday night and after slugging her, took $700 in cash and escaped.

The two robbers knocked at the door and asked to see the son of Mrs. Barclay. When advised that he was not at home they forced an entrance.

FOR PRESIDENT?

Political observers see in recent speeches by William Jennings Bryan indications of a boom for William A. Ayers (above), Wichita (Kans.) lawyer and member of congress, as democratic standard bearer in the 1924 presidential race.

ATTORNEY UNMASKS MEMBERS OF KLAN AT CHURCH SERVICE

Masked Men Entering Church Asked by Pastor to Retire or Remove Hoods

HALF DOZEN UNMASKED BEFORE KLANSMEN MAKE GET-AWAY

Further Action Under Contemplation by Lawyer

PITTSBURGH, Pa.—Elmer L. Kidney, a lawyer, who Sunday tore the masks from half a dozen hooded men in the Bellevue Methodist Episcopal church, Monday refused to discuss the incident other than to say he had plans which would develop in due time.

The Rev. Dr. R. B. Urmy, who was in the pulpit at the church, in the midst of Easter morning services when the men entered, said he would have nothing more to do with the matter. Any action Mr. Kidney may take will be for himself and not for the church.

"So far as I am concerned," said Dr. Urmy "the incident is closed. These men, masked and robed, walked into our church and were really disturbing a religious meeting when I invited them to retire.

"Such a disturbance is in violation of the law, but I meant what I said when I said they were welcome to remain if they would remove their disguises."

Mr. Kidney, who reported the incident to the Pittsburgh police, is an officer of the church and was standing near the door when the men, masked and robed, entered the room. They were followed by ten others.

As the minister ordered them to leave Kidney moved toward them and they left the building. Outside the church were a number of automobiles and to these the men hurried but Kidney, it is stated, succeeded in unmasking a number of them before they gained the cars.

It was stated Sunday night that the attention of the district attorney's office would be called to the matter with a view to prosecution under the law prohibiting disturbance of religious meetings.

FIREMEN RESPOND TO SIX ALARMS IN CITY IN TWO DAYS

Greatest Damage Done at John Bjorge Residence Sunday Morning

La Crosse fire equipment responded to six alarms in the city over the week-end, two of which threatened damage to property. Greatest damage was done to the residence of John Bjorge, 713 Ferry street, where an overheated stove started a fire in the wall while the family was out to church.

Two of the three grass fires, one at Charles and Island streets on the north side, and the other in the vicinity of Twenty-sixth and Cass, threatened damage to property and fences. The north side fire was reported at 11:30 Sunday morning and the other shortly before. The fire in the marsh back of the Standard Oil company was reported early Sunday morning, at 3:50.

Damage of approximately $100 was incurred in fire at the Bjorge residence. All members of the family were out to church at the time. The stove became overheated and flames started in the wall back of the stove, spreading to the ceiling before an alarm was turned in.

There was also a small roof fire at 1501 South Ninth street Sunday afternoon. The sixth alarm was false, box 341 at Fourteenth and State streets being pulled about 9:30 Saturday night.

TOBACCO POOL IS WINNER IN COURT ACTION

Permanent Injunction Issued Preventing Interference in Co-operative Concern by Bekkedal Company

CO-OPERATIVE MARKETING IS UPHELD IN STATE HIGH COURT

"Will Appeal at Once" is Word of Bekkedal Attorney

MADISON, Wis.—A permanent injunction restraining the M. H. Bekkedal company from interfering with contracts of the Northern Wisconsin Tobacco Pool, a co-operative association of tobacco growers, was granted by Judge E. V. Werner, Shawano, in a decision handed down Monday. This decision sustains the validity of the pool contracts which the private company claimed to have been entered into in restraint of trade.

The court order declared that "the plaintiff is entitled to judgment permanently enjoining the defendants from interfering in any manner whatever with the contracts of the plaintiff and from interfering with the business matters of the plaintiff, and particularly from buying or attempting to buy any tobacco from any persons who have contracted to sell the same to the plaintiff and from receiving or attempting to receive any of the tobacco grown in the year 1922 by any person who is under contract to sell the same to the plaintiff."

Dismissal of the counter-claim made by the Bekkedal company was ordered by the court.

Contracts Valid

In its findings of fact the court held that the contracts entered into by the pool were not obtained by fraud or duress or misrepresentation or coercion. This had been charged by the defendants in the suit.

The decision held further that the "plaintiff pool has not fixed or attempted to fix prices in contravention of any rules of law; that it has not restricted the production of tobacco or attempted to restrict the production of tobacco; that its contracts are not in unlawful restraint of trade; that no conduct of the plaintiff is in unlawful restraint of trade."

It stated that the pool "is not either a combination or a trust or a conspiracy in restraint of trade or commerce, or in violation of any law of the state of Wisconsin."

This is a sweeping victory for the pool, its officers claim, since it sustains the new co-operative association of growers on every point raised against it by the defendant company in the action.

Will Appeal

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—"We will appeal to the state supreme court at once," said Walter D. Corrigan, Milwaukee attorney for the M. H. Bekkedal company, in its suit against the Northern Wisconsin Tobacco pool, when advised today of Judge Werner's decision upholding the pool's legality. "We have planned all along to appeal the case if the lower court decision was adverse, for we want the supreme court to rule on the law and the facts."

HEARING IS SET FOR WEDNESDAY ON BILL FOR EIGHT-HOUR DAY

Tucker Bill also Limits Overtime and Imposes Penalty for Violations

JOINT COMMITTEE RESUMES HEARING ON HIGHWAY BILLS

Continue Session to Permit Those Who Desire to be Heard

MADISON, Wis.—The Tucker assembly bill limiting the work day of all employes in Wisconsin to eight hours is scheduled for hearing before the senate committee on state affairs Wednesday afternoon. The bill would also limit overtime work and would make it a misdemeanor for any person or concern to violate its provisions.

The Olsen assembly bill prohibiting the employment of women for more than eight hours a day is up for hearing Thursday before the senate committee on education and public welfare. This bill and the Tucker bill both passed the assembly by a good majority.

The joint committee on highways will continue its hearing Wednesday on two highway committee tax bills, one to levy a two cent per gallon tax on gasoline sale and the other to assess a license fee graduated according to weight on all motor vehicles. The committee held a lengthy hearing last week, but all those who desired to speak on the bills did not get an opportunity to be heard, so the hearing was continued.

In the assembly committee rooms there is to be a hearing Wednesday on the Tyler senate bill prohibiting employment of children in theatrical and similar exhibitions in the state. This will be before the labor committee.

The finance committee will have before it the Sachtjen assembly bill abolishing the service recognition board and creating a soldiers' rehabilitation board to provide for the rehabilitation and hospitalization of war veterans. This bill has already been reported favorably by the state affairs committee, but must also be heard before the finance committee inasmuch as it carries an appropriation. Another important bill before the finance committee Thursday is the Dahl bill, introduced at the request of Governor Blaine, which provides for a one-man civil service commission and carries an appropriation.

BREWING INDUSTRY BECOMING EXTINCT IN BADGER STATE

Property Being Diverted to Other Uses; Only 42 Breweries Licensed in 1923

MADISON, Wis.—Breweries are gradually slipping toward extinction according to data collected by the state prohibition department.

With the passing of the beer factories bar rooms are also undergoing rapid changes into some other form of business.

The state licensed 69 breweries in 1921. Eight of these had gone out of the dealcoholizing business by 1922 and W. Stanley Smith, state prohibition commissioner, announced Monday that only 42 breweries were licensed in Wisconsin for 1923.

Breweries represent a large investment. There is so much less a demand for near beer than the beer of old that plants can be operated but part time adding to overhead expense.

Brewing companies control most of the former saloon property. With the center concerns selling out for other forms of industry, saloon property is getting into other hands and is following its parent business into new activities.

In spite of continued legislative agitation, loosening of prohibition laws is still but a hope for the future and it is claimed that both breweries and saloons that have continued in business until recently waiting for the return of at least light wine and beer have been losing money from year to year. Besides the light wine and beer agitators bring no favorable plea for the old saloon.

Wisconsin people spent $26,710 for permits to allow the use and sale of liquor last year, most of this being paid by druggists and doctors.

Many breweries of the state have become canning, candy or some other kind of factory and a number are standing idle because no use for them has yet been discovered.

NO INDICTMENTS MADE BY JURY IN HURLEY RUM CASE

MADISON, Wis.—Investigation of the Hurley raid of 1920 ended Monday when the grand jury which met here returned a "no bill" on the criminal cases.

It is understood that the action of the jury was based on the ground that the search warrants used had been found to be illegal by Judge C. Z. Luse and that there was a want of other supporting evidence sufficient for conviction.

The Hurley raid was one of the most spectacular ever carried out in the state. The raid was made by 50 special agents from Chicago who proceeded to Hurley by special train.

Hurley bore the distinction of being the wettest spot in Wisconsin.

Patrons may also be accommodated at the four money order stations located in stores in different parts of the city.

HERO OF CHICKAMAUGA IS DEAD AT KENOSHA

Prominent Badger Citizen Dies Sunday at Advanced Age of 79 Years

KENOSHA, Wis.—Death claimed one of the most prominent citizens of southern Wisconsin on Sunday morning when the Hon. Ernest G. Timme, aged 79 years, a hero of the battlefield of Chickamauga, former secretary of state of Wisconsin and for many years auditor of the United States treasury, postoffice and state departments, died at his home here from weaknesses due to his advancing years. In Civil war days he had heard President Lincoln's first call for volunteers and although only eighteen enlisted with Company C of the First Wisconsin infantry. For his personal bravery on the battlefield at Chickamauga, where he lost his left arm, he was brevetted a captain. Later he was advanced to the rank of colonel.

Returning to Kenosha after the war he was elected county clerk which post he held for fifteen years. In 1881 he was elected secretary of state, serving in that position for nine years and being many times mentioned prominently for governor. He was appointed an auditor of the United States treasury department by President Harrison and named to higher posts in the postoffice and state departments by Presidents McKinley and Roosevelt.

Surviving him are a wife, one son and two daughters. The funeral services, in charge of the Kenosha post of the Grand Army of the Republic, of which he was a past commander, will be held at the home here on Tuesday afternoon.

FREIGHT CARS OFF RAILS AT BANGOR ON SUNDAY NIGHT

Eleven cars of a west bound freight train left the rails at Bangor Sunday evening about six o'clock. The only damage reported was a tie-up of traffic for about an hour. Two cars of coal in the string tipped over, the rest remaining upright.

The cars were put back with the aid of the Milwaukee and Burlington wrecking crews.

KLAN IS ISSUE IN CITY ELECTION IN EAST ST. LOUIS

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill.—By The Associated Press.—Intense feeling and keen rivalry between Ku Klux Klan and anti-klan forces marks the closing hours of the municipal election campaign here, according to a news article printed Monday by the St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Three of the eight candidates for city commissioner are said to have received the indorsement of the klan, with the understanding that should they be elected, none but klansmen and Protestants would be appointed to city offices. A mayor and four commissioners and to be elected tomorrow.

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's no sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with a "dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result. Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 15c and 30c.

A Delight
That millions have discovered
Whiter, cleaner, safer teeth

Look about you—note the prettier teeth you see. Note how people smile to show them.

Think what added beauty those pearly teeth have brought.

Millions now clean teeth in a new way. You will use it when you know. This is to offer a ten-day test so you may find it out.

That dingy film

Teeth are coated with a dingy film—that viscous coat you feel. It clings to teeth, enters crevices and stays.

Food stains, etc., discolor it, then it forms cloudy coats. Tartar is based on film. That's why teeth lose luster.

Film also holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay. That's why tooth troubles were almost universal.

Germs breed by millions in film. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea, now so alarmingly common.

So dental science sought for film combatants, and eventually found two. One acts to curdle film, one to remove it, and without any harmful scouring.

Able authorities proved these methods effective. Then a new-type tooth paste was created, based on modern research. Those two great film destroyers were embodied in it.

That tooth paste is called Pepsodent. Now it has come into world-wide use, largely by dental advice.

Other effects

Pepsodent also multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva. That is there to neutralize mouth acids, the cause of tooth decay.

It multiplies the starch digestant in the saliva. That is there to digest starch deposits which may otherwise ferment and form acids.

Those are vital tooth protectors. Soapy tooth pastes weaken them. That's one reason why they failed. Pepsodent multiplies their power.

Watch the change

The way to know is to make this test. Judge by what you see and feel. It will be a revelation.

Send the coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coats disappear.

Then you will realize how important this is to the people in your home. Cut out coupon now.

Avoid Harmful Grit
Pepsodent curdles the film and removes it without harmful scouring. Its polishing agent is far softer than enamel. Never use a film combatant which contains harsh grit.

HIS WAY PERFECT

As for God, His way is perfect: the word of the Lord is tried: He is a buckler to all them that trust in him.—2 Samuel 22:31.

Terror

MORE riots in the Rhineland indicate the increasing tensity of the situation there. The "edge" of dispatches has rather been taken off by the length of the occupation and the continued absence of serious trouble. Daily reports that the situation is "strained" after a bit become accustomed fare and we fail to realize the grim facts behind the report. But the reports are warranted. The strain has been growing. A few such incidents as that at Essen on Saturday will crack the situation wide open. It indicates that the impression that the Ruhr has more or less settled down to make the best of the occupation is a delusion. In the Essen riots, the most serious and deadly since the beginning of the French invasion, is the evidence that instead of weakening German hostility to the invasion is increasing under the surface, the smouldering fire growing ever nearer to the flaming point.

If it does break out into open eruption there will be savage and bloody history written: The Ruhr and all the rest of Germany is, it may be believed, practically helpless. Against the well-armed French resistance will be suicidal. Fighting will mean inevitable German defeat, accompanied by wholesale destruction and new French demands. But even that is not the worst possibility. There is a certain sympathy between Soviet Russia and Germany. Helpless in her own situation, the Germans may call upon the Reds, and given a sufficient quid pro quo Moscow may intervene. That can mean nothing less than a European war of the first magnitude. It is a question whether European civilization's structure can stand the strain.

That is why the situation in the Ruhr, grave as it is for Germany and France, is no less pregnant with terror for the rest of the world. It would seem that statesmen who sit with folded hands while such a menace grows may not escape responsibility for the results should the threatening disaster come to pass.

Missed the Point

THE tax commission report to the legislature to the effect that taxation in Wisconsin is not tending to drive industries from the state or to prevent industrial development here, is not particularly convincing, because its investigation did not reach the ground upon which the statement of damage to business was predicated.

The statement contains a comparison of existing tax laws in various states, showing that we pay more than some and less than others. Even as a discussion of the status quo it seems remiss in having neglected important comparisons between Wisconsin taxes and the taxes of contiguous states.

But in order to have made the issue the comparison should have been between the proposed new tax legislation in Wisconsin and taxes in surrounding states, for it was fear of the pending tax legislation which gave rise to the threat of removal. It may be added it was not taxes alone, but the general program of industrial legislation which is moving forward in the legislature, which inspired the fear that was expressed.

We do not know to what extent these fears are justified, or in what measure the threats of removal are in good faith. But irrespective of their merits, the answer of the tax commission should have squarely met the actual issue.

Boy Wizards

A WONDERFUL boy astronomer lives in Athens, Greece. He is William Nelson Abbott, 16 years old. This lad was the first to make the discovery, some weeks ago, that the star Beta Ceti had "flamed up" to the extreme brilliancy known as "star of the first magnitude." Astronomy has been his hobby since he was 11. And he is so far advanced in this great scientific field that he has been given honorary membership in the Societe Astronomique de France and the Association Francaise des Observations d'Etoiles Variables of Lyons. Young Abbott is descended from an Englishman who went to the Near East as a Crusader, centuries ago, and settled in Greece.

Abbott made his discovery, about the star Beta Ceti, with his naked eye. Then, he says:

> I went to the telescope to compare Beta with the star Aldebaran, which is taken as a unit, and found that Beta had increased in brilliance more than three magnitudes. I determined the star's position on a chart and telephoned to the Athens Observatory, where it was said that nothing had been observed. I telegraphed next day to M. Flammarion, the astronomer in Paris.

Flammarion checked the lad up, found he was right.

You recall the Polish boy chess wizard. On his heels comes this lad in Greece, apparently destined to be one of the world's greatest astronomers, possibly the leader.

Margaret Maguire, Philadelphia educator, originator of schools for backward pupils, tells about a boy who came under her observation. He seemed to be the champion dumbbell, half asleep and disinterested in the subjects that the teachers brought to his attention.

"Then," says Miss Maguire, "some one happened to mention radio. And the boy stood up and began to lecture on radio in technical terms that amazed the teachers."

That boy had, born in him, the scientific intellect that is characteristic of the rising generation. When a grown-up hears some of these knee-trousers lads talking about radio—well, it rather makes him feel that the older generation belongs to an obsolete period. The world is entering a great scientific age. The rising generation reveals that, clear-cut, unmistakably.

IT DID

BY CORONA REMINGTON

"Jeanette, I've come to talk to you, dear, and very seriously too. I've been thinking things over for weeks and at last I've made up my mind."

Fred Ormsby crossed his long slender legs and lighted a cigar.

"Oh, do tell me, Fred. You know I'm interested in anything that concerns you."

Jeanette McDowee, in her little pink organdie, looked like some fairy thing as she sat beside her lover and looked up at him, her big brown eyes wide with curiosity.

"Yes, you're interested in me except when it comes to marrying me," said the man half bitterly.

"Now, Fred, don't be horrid and begin that all over again," she begged, "but tell me what it was you were going to say."

"All right. It's going to be a long talk."

"Do go on. How you do love to create suspense, you old tease, you."

"I'm not teasing. This is no light matter, Jeanette, yesterday I was thirty-three years old. It came to me like a shock when I glanced up at the calendar and realized it. Thirty-three is no longer young. Soon I'll be getting bald and gray around the temples and not long after that I'll be buying stouts and ——"

"Mercy! How middle you are tonight," laughed Jeanette putting her fingers in her ears. "I won't listen to another word of such talk because I'm only ten years behind you and women usually get there younger than men and that makes it worse."

"Ten years! If I were your age I would never have reached the conclusion I did last night."

"Oh, yes, you were going to tell me."

"First of all, I don't want you to think I'm cold-blooded or calculating or anything of the sort. I'm simply trying to make the best I can out of life. I don't want to take the step I'm about to take, but it seems the lesser of two evils. Since I've been proposing to you at regular intervals for over a year and you've turned me down every time, I've decided there's no hope. At first it nearly drove me mad, and I vowed I'd never marry any one if I couldn't marry you, but the idea of a lonely old age was too much for me, and at 12 o'clock tonight I'm going to Chicago to ask Agnes Rawson to marry me. I met her five years ago, and we've kept up the acquaintance ever since. If I had never known you I should probably have been very happy with her. As it is, I'm going to make the best of it and pray that I shall make her the husband she deserves."

For one stunned moment Jeanette stared at the man beside her. Could it be possible that this was the man who had been at her beck and call for three years? Could this be the man who had sworn that he could never bear the thought of loving another woman? Could this be the man she had always depended upon to do anything she wanted—to come when she wanted—to go when and where she wanted? Yet, after all, why shouldn't he? It was certainly just and fair and she had had her chance. Three whole years of his love and time and attention.

He waited tensely for her to say something.

"I hope you don't think any the less of me for it," he said at last. "That's one thing I simply couldn't bear."

"Why, no, Fred, how could I? Besides, it makes it so much easier for me to tell you something I think you ought to know."

"Heavens! Is there something troubling you too?"

"No—no, not troubling me, only Floyd Wilson wired yesterday he'd be here tomorrow and—and he wants me to marry him—and I think I'll say 'yes.' You know we were together a good bit the first year I met you. Then he moved to Springfield. Remember him?"

"Yes, I remember him and, Lord, how I envy him!"

"Well, aren't you going to wish me any happiness or anything?" asked Jeanette indignantly.

"Of course I do, dear. I wish you all the happiness I would love to give you myself."

"Thank you, Fred. You're an old dear."

During the rest of the evening Jeanette was amazingly cheerful and vivacious. Fred wretchedly decided he had never seen her quite so happy, and when he said good-by he could scarcely keep the huskiness out of his voice.

"We'll always be friends, won't we?" he asked.

"Always," she answered warmly.

Jeanette spent a restless night, but as she entered the breakfast room her eyes were brilliant with suppressed excitement and Mrs. McDowee was at a loss to understand her daughter's peculiar manner.

"Jeanette, I never saw you so excited. What on earth is the matter?" asked her mother.

"Nothing, mother, I'm not a bit excited."

"Oh, there's a telegram came for you. I put it under your plate, dear."

"Probably from Tom. He said he'd wire how the game came out last night," said Jeanette as she listlessly ripped open the envelope.

"Forgive me for deceiving you," the message ran. "I had no intention of proposing to any one else and only told you that in the hope of bringing you around. Fred."

Quickly Jeanette scribbled a line at the bottom:

"It did. Love, Jeanette."

"Oh, mother, get John to rush this off," she said, jumping up. "I wonder whether he'll get it in time to catch the 9 o'clock train back?"

"Who'll get what?" asked her mother placidly.

"Oh, nothing. I'll jump in the car and send it myself. It's dreadfully important."

"Probably an invitation to a house party next June," said Mr. McDowee, going back to the morning paper as his daughter flitted out of the door.

NEW YORK CRIME WAVE CHECKED BY POLICE ACTIVITY

NEW YORK.—Police officials, with the city's force still working overtime, declared Monday they had broken the crime wave which struck New York last week. The increased body of patrolmen and doubled precautions will be continued for a time, it was announced. Police Commissioner Enright was reported home from a holiday in Florida, ready to take charge of the situation.

A threatened widespread outbreak of crime on Easter Sunday was checked, the police say, through the department's preparations.

SIBERIA CO-OPERATES IN SOVIET TRADE MONOPOLY

VLADIVOSTOK.—Mr. L. Serebriakoff, former assistant minister of communications, has been sent here as the representative of the department of labor and defense. This is the highest department of the state and comprises the most highly placed communists.

On January 30, the customs house was closed for all commercial operations, and no goods can be imported until it has been proved that they are not in the category of those whose import has been forbidden by order of the soviet government.

The opinion was expressed at a meeting of the far eastern board of communications that the monopoly of foreign trade by the government as a political weapon against the capitalistic countries, would not give the same result in the far east as it would on the western front, owing to the fact that the one nation whose frontiers march with those of Russia is China, and "the political opinion of China is dictated by the western world."

Dr. Liu said that the students' union, which had more than 2,500,000 members, was the only movement of the "common people" in China. Among its purposes are popular education, making an anti-Japanese boycott effective, fighting Japanese domination and fostering relations with the United States.

No American Intervention In Sight

BY FRANK H. SIMONDS

WASHINGTON.—The conversations between Mr. Gary and Herr Stinnes bear every outward semblance of one more German effort to avoid defeat and surrender in the Ruhr war. What would be simpler and easier than to interest American high finance in German industry and to establish a community of interest between American steel industries? Then, naturally American finance and American industry would be personally concerned in German escape from disagreeable war obligations.

But of course such a maneuver could succeed only if American industry and capital were ready to enter into a political as well as a business alliance and were able to exercise political as well as financial pressure upon France. What the thing actually means is that Germany is ready to present American financial and industrial magnates with a share in German big business, provided the beneficiaries are willing to fight Germany's battle for her.

A pretty fair analogy is the willingness of a burglar to divide his swag with anyone who will leave him a comfortable share and get him off from all punishment for his crime. The German reasoning is all in accord with the burglar's and the German estimate of the American attitude, in big business and out of it, is to be deduced from the character of the Stinnes proposal.

* * * *

But the trouble lies in the fact that big business, in the first place is unlikely to undertake to pull German chestnuts out of the European fire and totally unable, even if it desired, to enlist the United States government to use its official influence on behalf of the proposed combination of German and American industrial forces.

Of course one of the ways by which Germany could meet French demands would be by some form of combination between French iron and German coal, between the heavy industries in both countries. But at the precise moment the Germans repulse any such proposal, while they are voluntarily seeking it in the case of the United States.

All German policy, of course, maneuvers around the fixed point of keeping France ruined. If the present passive resistance in the Ruhr costs more or promises to cost more to Germany than payments of reparation might cost, yet no benefit flows to France, her position grows worse, not better. If a deal is made with Mr. Gary, or Mr. Morgan, with American finance and industry, by which they adopt the German thesis, their Germany is saved and France remains ruined.

Soon from this angle the Gary-Stinnes conversation becomes no more than one more episode in the Ruhr war. It is a new effort on the part of the Germans to escape the inevitable end, which is surrender and the acceptance of French terms. It is an effort to enlist the selfishness and commercial instincts of another people and in this fashion to acquire a new ally for Germany.

* * * *

Our financiers and our industrials are to be bribed by the allotment of shares in German industry. They, in turn are to exert their all powerful influence upon the American government. The government, in turn, is to call a new world conference at which the United States will be represented and take the German view, in company with the British and, behold, Germany is freed from the treaty of Versailles, from reparations, and France is isolated and intimidated.

Of course the trouble in the calculation lies in the fact that while it is ingenious, as all German combinations are, it rests upon false psychology. There may be some difference of opinion in the United States about the wisdom of the Ruhr operation, as a debt collecting venture, but there is a pretty general agreement that France is entitled to collect if she can and an almost unanimous conviction that Germany should pay and has made no honest effort to pay.

Even assuming that Mr. Hughes and President Harding would like to do something to end the Ruhr affair, with all its immediate and eventual perils to world peace, there is not the smallest reason for believing that either would be willing to do anything to help Germany avoid payments which are just and possible.

* * * *

The trouble with the German is that while he rests his case upon the claim that he has been asked to pay beyond his capacity, his purpose, never more than thinly veiled, is to escape all payment. And this is what Mr. Gary and Mr. Morgan and every other American, whether a captain of industry or a private of labor, would have to say to Mr. Stinnes, when it came to a frank discussion of things.

American public sentiment is not deeply stirred over Germany's present plight. It has reacted to French sufferings much more generally. Americans believe France should be paid and that Germany is seeking to evade payment. Such being the case the American government, even if it held another view, of which there is no sign, could do nothing to help Germany in the face of domestic sentiment.

* * * *

The Stinnes-Gary interview is only one more incident in a long war, a war of attrition, of position, which if it goes long enough must end in German defeat. Germany has had some success in enlisting British sympathy, although she has failed to get official support. She has turned her attention to the United States and is now fishing for American intervention by appealing to American industrial leaders.

That she will fail here may be safely forecast, but that she will continue to angle for American aid for a certain time may also be conjectured. The moment when she must surrender has not come, it will not come until all other solutions have at least been tried. The mere meeting between Gary and Stinnes will be featured and emphasized in all the German press, Stinnes owned or controlled.

But no special or inside information is needed to convince the mass of American people that Germany will not escape reparations by means of American intervention and when the German people appreciate this fact, when they realize that neither the United States nor Great Britain is going to intervene on their behalf against France, we shall be nearer to a real proposal. For on these supposedly sympathetic publics the Germans relied when they joined battle at the Ruhr and the battle itself was foredoomed to defeat, if the calculations proved erroneous.

TUESDAY ELECTION CONFINED TO LOCAL CONTESTS WITH NO STATE CONTESTS SCHEDULED

MADISON, Wis.—By the Associated Press.— The Wisconsin judicial election Tuesday will be confined to local contests, without any state-wide feature to lend general interest. Municipal, county and various minor county positions will be filled by balloting in the localities affected.

Justice Charles H. Crownhart will be elected to the supreme court without a contest; for the ten year term commencing the first Monday in January, 1924. Justice Crownhart was appointed by Governor Blaine to fill the unexpired term of Chief Justice Siebecker, who died early in 1922.

Four circuit court judges will be elected without a contest. They are: C. M. Davison in the thirteenth circuit; Gullick N. Risjord in the fifteenth circuit; Chester A. Fowler in the eighteenth circuit, and William B. Quinlan in the twentieth circuit.

Three judges for benches of the second judicial circuit in Milwaukee county are to be chosen, with contests being waged there. A civil judge for the fourth branch and another for the fifth branch of the Milwaukee civil court, is to be selected.

In Green county, Judge John M. Becker, appointed by Governor Blaine to succeed John L. Sherron, is up for election. Judge Becker is being opposed by W. A. Loveland, Monticello attorney, whose friends are predicting his election by a wide margin. County judges are being elected in Marathon county and Winnebago county, in addition.

In Douglas county a judge of the superior court is to be elected, and in Bayfield, Barron, Iron, Oneida, Rusk, Sawyer, Sheboygan and Vilas counties, municipal judges are up for election. Municipal judges are also to be chosen in Langlade, Polk and Rock counties.

Superintendents of schools will be elected in each superintendent district of the state for the regular two year term.

PLANS DRAMA AT POPULAR PRICES TO FIGHT MOVIES

Channing Pollock to Produce Plays at Maximum Admission Fee of One Dollar

NEW YORK.—Channing Pollock, playwright, Monday announced tentative plans for the production of legitimate drama at small admission prices to combat the growing popularity of motion pictures which he admits will cause its backers a loss of at least $2,000 a week. The highest priced seats will be $1 each, according to Pollock.

While details have not been completed, he has interviewed interested men and women in the managerial production and artistic fields and had their promises of support.

Briefly, Pollock said that in the 1924-1925 season he and his backers would lease a theater seating no more than 1,100 persons, in which to produce the best types of modern plays. There also would be seats for twenty-five, fifty and seventy-five cents, he declared, adding that the $2,000 or more weekly loss would ensue could be "underwritten a dozen times over." Several leading actors and actresses, he said, had agreed to give their services "for just enough to live on."

Most of the luxuries of the poor in England are taxed three or four times as much as before the war.

Sure Way to Get Rid of Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. Then you destroy it entirely.

To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and two or three more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

BAKING SCHOOL ON WEDNESDAY IN FULL SWING

Vocational School Teacher Conducts Free Classes at Light Co. in Model Kitchen

Delicious cakes, pies that melt in your mouth, and other good things that represent the best kind of home cooking are among the cookery demonstrated on Wednesday afternoons at the office of the Wisconsin Minnesota Light and Power company by Mrs. John P. Lamb.

Mrs. Lamb is an expert in baking, a graduate in home economics from St. Mary's college at Notre Dame. She is a teacher of cooking and sewing in the vocational evening school, and has splendid experience in her work. While she is demonstrating, she treats her classes to bits of valuable information which as household suggestions tend to make work at home much easier and more efficient.

The model kitchen in which she works has the newest equipment and is a perfect room in itself, with full water, gas and electric connection and Goodhousekeeping Institute approved furniture. The baking is done in a gas stove, the object of the present series of lessons being to demonstrate the proper use of ovens and the superiority of food cooked in an oven over that cooked on top of the stove.

The light company is conducting these free classes to teach housewives how to use gas to the best advantage, and Mr. J. G. Felton, manager, hopes that many people will take this opportunity to get valuable cooking suggestions.

The classes are at the Light office, 122 North Fifth street, at 2:30 every Wednesday afternoon, to continue through the spring. If attendance warrants it, as it promises to do, the company will offer additional classes.

These are some sample recipes from the two classes already held:

Sponge Cake

6 eggs
1 cup fine granulated sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon lemon juice
Grated rind ½ lemon
1 cup flour

Beat egg yolks thick; add sugar gradually and continue the beating. Add lemon juice and rind. Fold in the stiffly beaten egg whites, and lightly fold in the flour sifted with the salt. Bake at [illegible] degrees for one hour.

Gold Cake

¼ cup butter
[illegible] egg yolks
[illegible] teaspoon baking powder
[illegible] cup flour
[illegible] cup milk

[illegible] teaspoon salt

Mix baking powder, flour and salt and sift three times. Cream the butter and sugar, beat yolks until light and add to butter and sugar. Beat thoroughly. Add flavoring. Add milk and flour alternately and bake in a loaf. Bake at [illegible] degrees for [illegible] minutes.

Scalloped Oysters

1 pint oysters
4 tablespoons oyster liquid
2 tablespoons milk or cream
½ cup stale bread crumbs
1 cup cracker crumbs

BEADED GIRDLES

Beaded girdles are very popular now, tied directly in front after the fashion of the ancient Egyptians, who are now dominating the fashionable woman's wardrobe.

SIMPLICITY OF DESIGN IS MET WITH A RIOT OF ELABORATE AND COLORFUL ACCESSORIES

ACCESSORIES IN THIS YEAR'S FASHION DISPLAY.

By MARIAN HALE

There never was such a riot of decorative gloves and shoes and stockings as the spring shop windows are showing.

Shoes are of blue and red and green kidskin or at least are trimmed with these colors. Elaborately cut away sandals are made of Paisley silks and stiff brocades. Even the walking shoe that was wont to be so conservative is made of two leathers combined.

Colonial pumps are going out for smart wear. The newest shoes are slippers—slippers so open that there is little leather left to them. They are extravagantly ornamental and impractical. So, of course, we shall all wear them.

Stockings must match the shoes in gaiety. One large firm is showing 30 different shades in all their spring styles. Light stockings haven't lost a jot of their popularity for street wear. Sand and gray and nude are expected to flash beneath longer skirts with the same effect as when skirts were knee high.

Giddy gloves are the proper thing, too. Gauntlet gloves are especially good since the long tight sleeve has come back. These gauntlet gloves have cuffs of checkerboard pattern, embroidery, ruffles or godets.

Emphatically, the accessories of dress are of prime importance this season. It's due, of course, to the simplicity of style lines.

VARIETY OF SAUCES

BY BERTHA E. SHAPLEIGH
Of Columbia University

When Brillat Savarin, French statesman, came to this country in the early part of the nineteenth century he made the observation that in the United States he found many churches, but only one sauce, whereas in his own country they had many sauces and but one church. To this day many people know but one sauce—gravy.

A sauce should be smooth, glossy and consistent. No lumps and no watery, thin places in it.

The thickening for sauces is either starch, as flour and cornstarch, or egg yolks. Butter is usually the fat and in making white or brown sauces, the butter and flour are blended together and kept white or allowed to brown, depending on the sauce desired. The liquid is milk, cream or stock made from meat or fish.

A fish sauce is best made from fish stock. For boiled fish sauce use the water in which the fish was cooked as the liquid to be combined with the butter and flour. To fish sauce may be added lemon juice, chopped parsley or pickles, red and green peppers, capers, ketchup, chile sauce, and hard-boiled eggs or raw yolks of eggs.

For brown sauces the best flavor is obtained by cooking the vegetables, especially the onion, in the butter or fat used.

A sauce should be stirred often, and at the end vigorously. It is best strained, no matter how smooth it may seem to be.

A good proportion is two tablespoons (level) of butter and the same of flour to a cup of liquid.

Egg sauces are either hot or cold. If hot, the eggs are combined with butter and some acid and cooked over water. If cold, the egg yolks are blended with salad oil, and the sauce is not cooked. The first is Hollandaise; the second is mayonnaise.

You can clean 'em with a song, Use Blue Devil all along.—Adv.

La Crosse School Studied As Model For Other Towns

Vocational School System Here Inspected by Experts From Eastern Part of State

Interest in the La Crosse Vocational school is state-wide, particularly in its evening classes which have the reputation of being phenomenally large and successful. For several days last week, two vocational directors, H. G. Stewart of Green Bay and F. L. McAleavey of Fond du Lac, visited John B. Coleman, director of the local school, and inspected its system with its ways of conducting classes.

The evening schools have an attendance of 1,700 people, and a waiting list of several hundred. The students are adults from every walk of life. Nowhere else in the state is a school being conducted so successfully and at no other place are the directors working under the disadvantages of the local school with its barrack rooms and its work divided into three centers, awaiting the completion of the new building. Because of lack of room and money the school has had to refuse applications for admission to its classes, beyond a certain number.

The La Crosse system of using barracks has created some interest in the state, and Green Bay which is soon to erect a new building may adopt the plan.

MEXICAN GIRL IS INFATUATED WITH CHARLIE CHAPLIN

Gains Entrance to Movie Star's Home But is Repeatedly Put Out by Servants

CLAIMS SHE TOOK POISON AFTER BEING TURNED AWAY LAST TIME

No Traces of Poisoning Found at Los Angeles Hospital

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. — Efforts were being made Monday to determine that what police say was a feigned attempt at suicide, in reality was but a move for publicity as an aid to getting a film position on the part of Mrs. Marina Vegan, taken to the receiving hospital Saturday from the residence of Charles Chaplin, motion picture comedian.

HOLLYWOOD, Calif.— A young woman saying she is fifteen years old, and claiming acquaintance with General Francisco Serrano Mexican minister of war, and Pedro J. Almada inspector general of police in Mexico City, interested police surgeons and newspapermen Saturday night with declarations of having swallowed poison after having been ejected from the bedroom of Charles Chaplin, motion picture actor. She gave the name of Mrs. Marina Vega of Mexico City. While no traces of poison were found, the movie comedian, in whose automobile she was taken to the receiving hospital for treatment, told of several entrances effected to his house by the girl through ruses and of her being put out by his Japanese servant.

Her story was of infatuation with the comedian through seeing his pictures in Mexico City, and unsuccessful attempts to see him at the studio followed by gaining entrance to his residence while he was out and remaining in his bedroom until discovered there by a Japanese servant when the comedian returned with Pola Negri, his fiancee, and a physician. The girl was induced to leave after a brief talk with Charlie but returned a second time and after being put out said she purchased poison at a nearby drug store and again effected entrance. Induced to enter an automobile, she collapsed and was brought back into the house, saying she had taken poison. She was rushed to the receiving hospital, but after treatment surgeons shook their heads and placed a question mark on the hospital chart.

Copies of messages addressed to General Serrano and Inspector Almada appealing for funds were found in her possession.

FURS HIDE MODES ON CHILLY EASTER DAY IN NEW YORK

Annual Fashion Parade Notable for Scarcity of Spring Wear and Prevalence of Furs

NEW YORK — Attended by a smiling sun but with far from balmy breezes, the annual Easter day parade on Fifth avenue Sunday was notable for the scarcity of spring wear and the number and variety of furs.

Swathed from ankles to chin in her winter garments milady exhibited only spring headdress and footwear, and except in occasional instances did other than a trailing skirt edge give a hint of what is to be the prevailing mode.

Colors predominated in all attire, not hidden by winter coats, and the effect of Tut-Ankh-Amun was apparent. Hats were smaller, and the Egyptian influence brought back the turban and multi colors decorated with scarabs, hieroglyphics, and what nots. But on the whole, small colored straws, highly adorned with flowers and fruits of riotous colors were the most apparent. Red seemed to be the prevailing color for hats, although the mixture was bewildering.

Colored shoes also seemed the mode, with hose to match. Blue shoes and chiffon hose were popular, while red shoes with black chiffon hose were second choice. Color combinations were attempted with striking effect.

CONCENTRATION OF LIQUOR PROCEEDING RAPIDLY--HAYNES

Over Half of Private Stock to be Transferred to United States Warehouses by July 1

WASHINGTON. Concentration of whisky in warehouses where it can be guarded and its legitimate withdrawal more easily supervised by federal prohibition forces is being accomplished rapidly according to reports today to Federal Prohibition Commissioner Haynes.

Enforcement headquarters announced that it was expected by July 1, half of the 290 private warehouses will be emptied of their stocks. Reports to Commissioner Haynes show that under the amendment to the prohibition law authorizing the government to concentrate bonded whisky in concentration warehouses, 260,000 barrels already have been transferred to such warehouses out of a total of 800,000 barrels.

Distilling warehouses, Commissioner Haynes said, were being discontinued rapidly.

In the transfer of whiskey to the large concentration centers not a gallon has been "lost" or stolen.

LA CROSSE SCOUTS SEND A DELEGATE TO BIG CONFERENCE

Shirley M. Bughee to Receive Instructions to Qualify for an Executive

The national council, Boy Scouts of America, are conducting a school for scout executives at Iowa university, Iowa City, Iowa, from April 2nd to April 12, at which time, thirty six scout leaders are to be given further instruction, so as to qualify for scout executives.

The local scout executive has been urged to send a number of desirable men to this school from the long list at the Normal school and unfortunately, only one man was interested, Shirley U. Bughee, who left Sunday night, April 1st, to take the full course, Prof. Cotton, of the Normal school having granted Mr. Bughee leave of absence for the days lost at school.

The training course is to be thorough, there being nine members on the faculty, who are imported from all parts of the United States for these twelve days, among them Professors from the Columbia university, New York, Chicago and elsewhere.

The course will be very complete, and because of the shortness of time, the men will have lectures and class work from early in the morning, and until late in the evening, each day.

Mr. Bughee on his return, will take active part in the work at Camp Young Bear, and will be the camp director for 1923.

NOTED SPEAKER AT C. OF C. LUNCH WEDNESDAY NOON

W. M. Lewis of U. S. Chamber of Commerce to Speak on "Business and Education"

William Mather Lewis, of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, at Washington, will speak before the La Crosse Chamber of Commerce on Wednesday April fourth at noon luncheon on the subject of "Business and Education." Mr. Lewis is chief of Education Service in the Civic Development Department. This department which is concerned with such subjects as housing, city planning, education citizenship immigration and civic research, is an interesting example of the broadening interests of modern business. The business man of today is convinced that the success of his undertakings depends to a great extent upon the success of his community as a whole. To aid the business man in the development of his community, the Civic Development Department has five bureaus.

Matters relating to education are handled by the Department's Education Service. The Department stands for the elimination of illiteracy, for well-trained teachers, for physical education facilities, and for good and adequate school buildings.

The Housing and City Planning Bureau, under direct charge of the department manager is engaged in collecting and publishing information as to present housing conditions and co-operating with local chambers of commerce in working out a constructive program of improvement. This Bureau is helping cities in the formulation of effective city plans which may be actually carried into practice and also in furnishing advice and information on city zoning.

The Organization Service Bureau conducts research and supplies information on the structure, technique and activities of commercial and trade organizations. This Bureau issues pamphlets on such subjects as building and maintaining chamber of commerce membership, industrial development, community advertising retail trade extension and the like.

All organization members interested in efficient public administration and the legislative enactments of federal, state and municipal bodies are served by the Department's National Civics Bureau. This Bureau, in charge of the assistant manager of the Department who is a specialist in municipal research collects data, compiles statistics and reports, and furnishes information to commercial organizations throughout the country.

The Bureau of Immigration and Citizenship, impressed by the fact that 13,000,000 inhabitants of the United States are of foreign birth, is endeavoring to stimulate both native and foreign-born citizens to become more effective Americans. To this end, the Bureau keeps in touch with immigration legislation, naturalization, Americanization, and similar problems, so that all local business organizations may obtain advice and information at need.

These five Bureaus collectively, represent the service of but one of several useful departments which the National Chamber has established to serve the American business man.

The National Chamber is now the largest business federation in the world. It has more than 1,400 affiliated business organizations with an underlying membership of approximately 900,000 business men.

It was at the suggestion of Mr. B. E. McCormick Superintendent of the La Crosse public schools that Mr. Lewis was invited to speak at the Chamber noon luncheon.

Mr. McCormick has heard Mr. Lewis on numerous occasions and considers him one of the best and most forceful speakers in the United States, and stated further that it would be a treat to the people of La Crosse to hear Mr. Lewis at the Chamber of Commerce on Wednesday.

LADDIE BOY HOST AT EGG-ROLLING AT WHITE HOUSE

Two Thousand Children Participate in Merry-making; Cold Cuts Attendance

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Laddie Boy, with a basket of Easter eggs around his neck entertained Monday for his mistress on the southern White House lawn while Washington's younger generation indulged in its annual Easter egg rolling frolic.

Many of the children who had come last year missed the president and Mrs. Harding, but their joy seemed undiminished as they romped over the four hillocks in the spacious grounds, and engaged in various pastimes such as tossing balloons into the air and playing "catch" with their eggs.

Old timers among the White House police estimated the number of children at 2,000 early in the afternoon and said that the cold weather, coupled with the absence of the president and Mrs. Harding, kept thousands of others away. Some older policemen said that many times they had seen three times the number present on former occasions.

Laddie Boy made three appearances, each time being taken by a devoted attendant to various parts of the grounds so that all of the children could have the opportunity to play with him.

FRIEND SOUGHT TO FURNISH CLUE TO MURDER OF MODEL

Sweetheart of Man Under Suspicion is Central Figure in Police Inquiry

NEW YORK — A woman now is the nearest central figure in police pursuit of clues to a solution of the mystery of the murder of Dorothy Keenan who was chloroformed to death a few days ago.

It was learned today that the police had for some time been treating the sweetheart of a man who for several days has been under suspicion chiefly because he has been unable to account for his action for hours between midnight preceding the murder and eight o'clock the next morning.

The woman, they said, was being trailed in the hope that she might attempt to dispose of some of the jewels or other articles that were stolen from the model's West Fifty-seventh street apartment. She already has been interviewed by the police having provided the suspected man with an alibi for the hours before and after the murder with the exception of the eight that still remain unexplained.

The suspect is believed to have known the slain model intimately the authorities said.

VARIETY PLEASES AT THE RIVOLI IN BIG BILL SUNDAY

The Easter vaudeville program found many admirers at its first showing at the Rivoli theater on Sunday afternoon. While none of the acts stood out as distinctly better than the rest, all were good, with enough of variety to make a well-balanced bill.

La Vere and Collins offer a surprising variation of strong arm balancing act, with the woman as the "understander." Their act is one of the bright bits of the bill.

White and Beck, nattily dressed in tuxedos, have a likable line of comedy songs and patter. They put their stuff over in a manner that pleased their audiences. Phil Austin and Ralph Delaney, two dark-skinned entertainers, offer their idea of a syncopated hotel. They sing, talk and dance through fifteen minutes of entertainment.

Billed as "The Boys from Hollywood," Sam Armstrong and Lee Phelps stopped the show with the line of comedy and songs. One presides at the piano, and both sing interesting and original ditties. Only four persons of the Olympia Five appeared on the program. They entertained with songs, dances and musical numbers.

Natalie Harrison, exponent of the Morgan School of Dancing, with A. Blair, musical comedy star, and Patricia Grey and Frances Deegan, two comely young women, present a dancing act which they call "Artistic Pep." All the members of the company are graceful and accomplished dancers.

TO AID BUILDING OF HOMES PLAN OF NEW ASSOCIATION

Home Savings and Loan Association Elects Officers and Outlines its Plans

Organization of the Home Savings and Loan association was perfected at a meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Saturday night with the election of the following officers:

President, W. W. Holcomb; vice president, F. H. Schofield; secretary-treasurer, S. H. Russell; official attorney, D. S. Law; directors, John Mulder, Art Bruha, Harry Spencer, C. J. Slecr, John L. Halik; property appraisers, Jos. G. Dubraks, Otto A. Merman, Charles W. Noble; auditors and supervisors, Lee Asplin, Charles C. Looney, J. J. Schoen.

Fifty-three members will begin payments on 1060 shares, giving an income of $530 the first month.

"The originators expect an immediate and rapid increase in membership as soon as application cards and pass books can be furnished, and the plan is presented to the saving and investing public," said Secretary Russell today.

A number of the business women of the city have subscribed for shares.

The plan is to gather in the small and the large systematic savings now going largely into outside investments such as stocks and bonds, and to lend the accumulated funds for the building of homes in La Crosse and its territory. Loans will be made on first mortgage real estate on a conservative valuation, at six per cent, principal and interest to be paid in amortized monthly payments like paying rent.

"This is the kind of conservation and self-help to make a community spirit; to give wages to workingmen; to make business; to put new property on the tax duplicate. It is a mutual affair and is expected to pay its members from four to six per cent on savings, according to the length of time invested. Such enterprises are successful and popular wherever they are in operation, and some of them are very large. One in Omaha has $24,000,000 assets, and in the entire United States their aggregate assets are $3,000,000,000, all accumulated through small savings, and all loaned to home builders. The savings in this 'poor man's savings bank' in Milwaukee aggregate over $20,000,000."

BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON

Chronic coughs and persistent colds lead to serious lung trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and kills the germ.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by the medical fraternity as the greatest healing agency for the treatment of chronic coughs and colds and other forms of throat and lung troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and destroys the germs that lead to consumption.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of chronic coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, catarrhal bronchitis and other forms of throat and lung diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or the flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter of how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion Co., Atlanta, Ga.—(Adv.).

WILL HELP EX-SOLDIERS BUY POULTRY FARMS IN DAKOTA

BROOKINGS, S. D.—An eighty acre tract of land adjoining the South Dakota Agricultural college here has been divided into ten-acre farms upon which buildings, poultry houses and barns will be erected to train former service men in poultry raising, in cooperation with the program of the U. S. Veterans' bureau of the Tenth district.

When the farms are completed it is planned to sell them to former soldiers who are taking vocational training in agriculture. Intensive farming is expected to follow poultry, bee and produce raising. A requisite will be that each man who buys a farm be married, taking a poultry course in an agricultural college and have a satisfactory scholastic standing.

Similar to the plan worked out at Veteransville, Minn., the tenants will be given extended time to pay for their farms in a manner that will permit them to use their government allowances to finance the farms until they are income producers.

CANVASS RETURNS ASSURE SECOND BASEBALL CLUB FOR LA CROSSE THIS SEASON

WITH a pledge slightly over $2,400 and canvassers still at work on uncovered territory, the organization of a second baseball club for La Crosse was assured at the meeting in the Elks' club Sunday afternoon. In the neighborhood of forty fans were present at the meeting.

The executive committee announced that approximately one half of the above named amount has been received in actual cash, while the remainder is in the form of pledges to be paid within a certain time. The amount received has fallen short considerably of the goal of $3,000 set up by the executive committee at the beginning of the drive, but additional subscriptions are expected to be received during the week.

While all of the votes have not been counted as yet, it was practically assured from the returns so far that the club would take the name of the La Crosse Nelsons. The exact vote on the name will be announced later in the week.

The governing board of the club named Sunday consists of Warren Smith, president; Oscar Solberg, secretary; Charley Collins, treasurer; Henry Wittenberg, business manager, and W. C. Strehl, advertising.

From opinions advanced in a general discussion, it is almost certain that Big Benn will be given the mound. The governing board will start work immediately on the lineup and members indicated that some announcement may follow shortly.

EDUCATIONAL BILLS TO BE BROUGHT TO A VOTE THIS WEEK

Measures Propose Abolition of State Board of Education

MADISON, Wis.—Two important bills affecting the administration of educational affairs in Wisconsin are on this week's calendars of the senate and assembly.

In the senate the Carey bill, abolishing the state board of education is up for engrossment on Wednesday. It has been recommended for passage by the committee on education and public welfare, and was recommended by Governor Blaine in his recent message. In the assembly the Dahl bill which would abolish the state board of education, the board for the certification of teachers and create in lieu thereof a new state board of education to supervise all educational affairs, including the teacher training activities is on Thursday's calendar.

The Perry bill making it unlawful for any state employe including public school teachers, to hold membership in any labor union will be up for final passage in the assembly on Thursday. The Johnson Lake-Lawrence waterway project will be acted on Thursday.

Among the more important bills in the senate are the Titus bill lowering to seventeen the minimum age for compulsory school attendance and the Huber bill empowering the legislature to impose an ad valorem state of taxes.

LEGION TO PLANT TREES

BIRCHWOOD, Wis.—Members of the American Legion post of Rice Lake have adopted a plan of planting memorial trees on the highways leading into the city. The trees are being planted in honor of men who lost their lives in the late war. Trees will be planted each year until all high ways have received attention.

QUALIFY FOR MUSIC TESTS

FARGO, N. D.—Sorma DeVal soprano, Grace Watkins, pianist and the girls sextet and trio of Fargo high school qualified for the state music contest to be conducted at Grand Forks in May, at the district contest at Wahpeton. Wahpeton also qualified for voice and piano.

WALKER TO HAVE GOLF LINKS

WALKER, Minn.—Grounds have been purchased and sufficient subscriptions have been obtained from business men in this city to insure the organization and establishment of a permanent golf club at Walker.

COMPLETES GERMAN LOSSES

BERLIN.—Herr Schroeder, under secretary of the finance ministry, said Germany was justified in computing her total losses due to the execution of the peace treats, as 56,000,000,000 marks.

"FURY" WITH BARTHELMESS AND DOROTHY GISH IN CAST

What is declared to be one of the most picturesque and vivid dramas of the sea ever screened will be shown at the Rivoli Theater on Wednesday when "Fury," a First National picture starring Richard Barthelmess, begins an engagement of 4 days.

Mr. Barthelmess has surrounded himself with an excellent cast, the most important roles next to his own being portrayed by Dorothy Gish, Tyrone Power, Pat Hartigan Barry Malcolmo and Jessie Arnold.

The popular star has the role of a spoiled young second mate of a four masted schooner who loses all of his timidity when he learns of the great injustice that has been done his unfortunate mother.

RIVIERA TODAY

Doris May in her latest comedy "The Understudy" is the attraction at the Riviera today, where the blithesome young comedienne and her supporting company are regaling local theatregoers with comedy. Doris May stages forth today as one of the prize comedy favorites of the screen.

She is at her rollicking best in "The Understudy." In the first place producers have given her a role that fits her as snugly as a new glove, a story that ripples from start to finish with merriment, a plot that holds suspense at its beginning and keeps it until the final fadeout, and a supporting cast that helps her admirably in the development of this most entertaining narrative.

"ONE WEEK OF LOVE" AT THE CASINO THEATRE

There's a big railroad wreck in "One Week of Love," co-starring Elaine Hammerstein and Conway Tearle, now at the Casino theater. This is one of the two big action climaxes in the production and the better of the two since the other shows Miss Hammerstein in an aeroplane tail spinning and nose-diving its way into a terrific crash to the earth. But the wreck has a lot more interest than is common to photoplay spectacles of this particular class, and the reason for this especial interest is the identical reason which is being given for the extraordinary success which "One Week of Love" has been achieving throughout the country ever since its release.

KATHERINE MAC DONALD AND VAUDEVILLE AT THE RIVOLI

Of all the dramas flavored with the atmosphere of Main street, and Main Street people, Katherine MacDonald's "Money, Money, Money!" which opened at the Rivoli Theatre Sunday, is peerless.

The social distinctions of the typical small town are admirably set forth in this production. Miss MacDonald interprets the role of the daughter of a small town manufacturer. He is genially careless of the tokens of social dignity his daughter tries so hard to give him. As Priscilla, the daughter, the star is made to feel the overwhelming affluence of the family of the local banker.

Drama and comedy find a fine blending that could only be achieved by a good writer's story in the hands of a capable director.

Charles Clary, Carl Stockdale, Frances Raymond, Margaret Loomis are a few of the prominent players engaged.

"ADAM'S RIB" A SUCCESS

Cecil B. De Mille's new Paramount picture "Adam's Rib," was shown with marked success at the Majestic Theater Sunday. The picture, featuring Milton Sills, Elliot Dexter, Theodore Kosloff, Anna Q. Nilsson, Pauline Garon and Julia Faye is a story of the modern girl as an asset rather than a burden to her family.

Miss Garon as Mathilda Ramsay meets Prof. Reade at the Customs inspections in New York City. It develops that Reade (Elliott Dexter) is also from Chicago. Miss Ramsay's home town.

In Chicago there is a family mixup and in endeavoring to straighten it out Mathilda places herself in a precarious position when she is found in the apartment of M. Jaromir (Theodore Kosloff) the exiled king of Moravia. Mathilda's father riles her by saying that now no man will marry her. Prof. Reade is present and professes his love for Mathilda.

The finish finds Jaromir back home in his native Moravia married to a fat princess, while the domestic affairs of the Ramsay household have all been untangled with Mathilda and Prof. Reade presiding as junior mistress and master of the Ramsay mansion.

CONFESSION CLEARS UP FLOGGING GIVEN ALABAMA OFFICIAL

Young Dairyman Tells of Attack Made on Health Officer at Birmingham

BIRMINGHAM, Ala.—With six men in custody, federal and state authorities Monday continued their efforts to round the remaining number of the men charged with participating in the kidnapping and flogging of Dr. J. O. Dowling, city and county health officer, on May 17, last year. At least four other men are under suspicion as a result of a statement authorities said had been made to them by C. W. Tyson, a young dairyman, one of the six men under arrest.

Several times during Tyson's recital, according to the statement of officers present, he broke down and wept. Sobbing bitterly, he evinced much emotion, his questioners declared, in describing Dr. Dowling's cries of agony as members of the mob took turns at applying the lash.

Authorities say they did not offer immunity or hold any promises to Tyson of an character to obtain his statement. It was entirely voluntary they assert.

Dr. Dowling's zeal in enforcing laws that pertain to the public health caused the plot to be formed against him and executed, Tyson was said to have declared to officers. Certain dairymen, Tyson was quoted as saying, had long objected to the health officer's campaign for better milk.

Public Debate

Editor's Note—The Tribune recognizes that some of the following communications inject new matter into the city election campaign too late for those attacked to make reply. The newspaper would have preferred that in fairness such matter be withheld, but in view of its policy throughout the campaign of publishing all responsible communications regardless of their point of view, the letters are submitted for the appraisal of the voters with the suggestion that they are made public too late to be answered because their authors so intended.

URGES WOMEN VOTE

Editor Tribune:

May I be allowed space to call upon the women of La Crosse to vote in the city election next Tuesday?

Women of Wisconsin were among the first to lead in the fight for the equal franchise, and our state is credited with being the first to declare the equality of women in all the rights and duties of citizenship. But that distinction is of no value to the state nor to its women unless the franchise thus bestowed is exercised.

The highest privilege of American citizenship is the privilege of the vote. The man or women who does not vote resigns the right to self-government and submits to be ruled by others. It is no more creditable for a woman to have failed to vote than it is for a man. This is simply a matter of citizenship. I urge that every woman citizen of La Crosse vote on Tuesday.

GERTRUDE M. FAIRCHILD,
President, La Crosse County Community Council.

SHOULD BE PRINTED

Editor, Public Debate:

I was glad to hear what Mr. Taggart said at Kobart hall about Jim Murray, and I was sorry your reporter left it out of his story. What Mr. Taggart said was true, that Mr. Murray is a square man and true, and that if it was a race between Mr. Murray and Mr. Veerhusen, as it was until something funny happened in the Second ward, we would have two good and honest men running for mayor and there would be no need of knocking anybody in the campaign. I think when a man has worked for the city and been in the council and always tried to help make things better for everybody, if someone pays him a tribute for it, it is news and good news and ought to be printed. It makes good feeling all round, and encourages men like Jim Murray to think that when they give their time and honest effort to the home town it is appreciated by a lot of people and once in a while it will be mentioned and credit will be given where it is due.

THANK YOU

Editor, Tribune:

I wish to call the attention of the public to the statement of Mayor Bentley in Friday's paper that the Tribune had attempted to [illegible] Mr. Bentley referred to the daily sermons printed in the paper. That statement is very unjust. The Tribune has religious sentiments, else why do they have daily, year in and year out, the text from the bible in their paper on the editorial page with our flag over it? I don't call that trying to gain respectability. They have that and good Americanism too. The mayor says he don't want to sling mud. Why don't he quit it then? His mud slinging acts as a boomerang. I am not interested in the Tribune only as a subscriber.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK—Operators began bidding up stocks at the opening of Monday's market. A good demand was noted for such leaders as United States Steel common, Baldwin, Studebaker, the Pan-American issues, California Petroleum and Industrial Alcohol, all of which opened fractionally higher. Brown Shoe duplicated its previous top of the year and Century Ribbon was pushed up to a new high record. There were only a few heavy spots, Union Pacific and Southern Pacific each off fractionally being the most important.

Trading broadened as the morning progressed, the buying power being most effective in the oil, equipment, steel and automotive groups. Marland and Skelly Union Oils each established new high records for the year and General Asphalt, California Petroleum and Standard Oil of California followed them into higher grounds. Willys-Overland preferred up four points at a new peak price, led the advance in the motor group. Gains of a point or more were established by Mack Truck, Reynolds Spring, Gulf States Steel, Crucible, Union Bag and Paper, United Retail Stores and Owens Bottle, the last named at a new top. Delaware and Hudson slumped two points and Union Pacific extended its loss to one.

Foreign exchanges opened steady. Demand sterling was unchanged at $1.67¾ and French francs advanced two points to 6.67 cents.

Prices of stocks, early support of which depended on professional operations, sagged considerably later when unmistakable signs of heavy liquidation appeared in other quarters. Delaware and Hudson, Union Pacific, Phillips Petroleum and Pacific Oil were outstandingly weak, the last named falling to a new low level for the year in reflection of speculative uncertainty over the dividend. Impressive strength, however, was shown by Maxwell Motors A, which advanced four points and Mack Truck up 2¾. Call money opened at 5½ per cent.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET

CHICAGO, Ill.—General buying, due chiefly to unfavorable crop reports from Kansas, Nebraska and Illinois, resulted in an advance Monday to the season's highest prices for July and September deliveries of wheat. High winds and dust storms were among the adverse conditions reported from some sections. A forecast of unsettled weather indicating possible rain led, however, to considerable selling and brought about a reaction. The opening which ranged from ⅛ to ⅝c higher, with May $1.21 to $1.21¼ and July $1.17½ to $1.18, was followed by slight further gains and then a moderate downturn.

Throughout the day, the market proved to be a weather affair. Neither a decidedly bullish crop estimate nor announcement of a decrease in the United States visible supply total served to sustain prices when the weather outlook changed.

Threatened heavy deliveries on May contracts tended to make corn and oats relatively easy. After opening unchanged to ⅛c higher, May 73⅝ to 73⅞c, the corn market underwent a slight sag.

Oats started ⅛c off to a like advance, May 45⅛ to 45¼c, and later held near to the initial range.

Provisions reflected an upturn in hog values.

Save from $52 to $78 a year

You will be amazed to see how the use of "Bull" Durham will cut down the cost of your smoking.

How is it possible to give you quality at the low cost of 10 cents for 50 cigarettes?

ANSWER: The government tax alone on 50 machine-made cigarettes is 15 cents—5 CENTS MORE THAN THE COST OF 50 "BULL" DURHAM CIGARETTES TO YOU!

The average smoker saves $1 to $1.50 a week by "rolling his own" from "Bull"—or from $52 to $78 a year. This makes quite a Christmas fund—or pays for a fine trip.
